What we will do:

The University of Western Australia Volleyball Club (UWAVC) will:

- Provide a safe and healthy training, playing and volunteering conditions for all, including members, spectators and visitors;
- Provide information, training and supervision to ensure the safety of members, volunteers and spectators;
- Provide written procedures and instructions to ensure safe systems of playing and volunteering;
- Consult with committee, members and contractors where relevant to enhance the effectiveness of procedures;
- Provide adequate resources to enable members and volunteers to fulfil their OH&S responsibilities;
- Conduct regular reviews and evaluations of the health and safety systems in place; and
- Provide support and assistance to members and volunteers.

What members are expected to do:

While at training, games or other UWAVC associated activities and events, all members will:

- Follow all health and safety policies and procedures;

- Take reasonable care to ensure good health and safety procedures are implemented;
- Identify and support measures to eliminate or minimise unsafe conditions;
- Take responsibility for their own safety and for those around them by operating in a safe and appropriate manner; and
- Report all known or observed hazards to the UWAVC Committee.
